

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION

The University of the South Pacific is pleased to announce the opening of the School of Distance Education. This new school will provide a wide range of courses and programmes to meet the needs of students who are unable to attend traditional face-to-face classes. The school will offer a variety of flexible learning options, including part-time and full-time study, and will provide a high quality of education and support services. The school will also offer a range of courses and programmes in a variety of disciplines, including business, education, health, and social sciences. The school will be a major centre for distance education in the Pacific region and will provide a high quality of education and support services to students from all over the Pacific.
