INTANGIBLE CULTURAL HERITAGE

Intangible Cultural Heritage refers to those cultural heritages that are not material objects, but are embodied in the activities and expressions of individuals, groups and communities. It includes oral traditions and expressions, performing arts, social practices, rituals, festive events, knowledge and skills, and traditional craftsmanship. Intangible Cultural Heritage is a dynamic and living heritage that is constantly evolving and adapting to the changing needs and values of society. It is an essential part of the cultural identity and diversity of a community and a nation, and it plays a significant role in promoting cultural understanding, respect and dialogue among different cultures and peoples.
