INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON POLITICAL ECONOMY AND POLITICS

The International Conference on Political Economy and Politics is a major international forum for the exchange of ideas and information among scholars and practitioners in the field of political economy and politics. The conference provides a unique opportunity for researchers to present their work, to discuss it with their colleagues, and to learn from the work of others. The conference is held annually in a different location and is organized by the International Association of Political Economists (IAPE).

The conference is open to all researchers and practitioners in the field of political economy and politics, regardless of their nationality or institutional affiliation. The conference is held in English and is a major event in the calendar of the IAPE.

The conference is held in a different location each year and is organized by the International Association of Political Economists (IAPE).
