

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONS UNDER SPECIAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROTECTION

The Conference was held in Geneva from 19 to 24 September 1990. It was convened by the Secretary-General of the United Nations in response to a request from the Commission on Human Rights. The Commission had been concerned by reports of the arrest and detention of persons in various countries who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners. The Commission had also been concerned by reports of the use of special administrative measures to detain persons who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners.

The Conference was held in Geneva from 19 to 24 September 1990.

The Conference was held in Geneva from 19 to 24 September 1990. It was convened by the Secretary-General of the United Nations in response to a request from the Commission on Human Rights. The Commission had been concerned by reports of the arrest and detention of persons in various countries who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners. The Commission had also been concerned by reports of the use of special administrative measures to detain persons who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners.

The Conference was held in Geneva from 19 to 24 September 1990. It was convened by the Secretary-General of the United Nations in response to a request from the Commission on Human Rights. The Commission had been concerned by reports of the arrest and detention of persons in various countries who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners. The Commission had also been concerned by reports of the use of special administrative measures to detain persons who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners.

The Conference was held in Geneva from 19 to 24 September 1990. It was convened by the Secretary-General of the United Nations in response to a request from the Commission on Human Rights. The Commission had been concerned by reports of the arrest and detention of persons in various countries who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners. The Commission had also been concerned by reports of the use of special administrative measures to detain persons who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners.

The Conference was held in Geneva from 19 to 24 September 1990. It was convened by the Secretary-General of the United Nations in response to a request from the Commission on Human Rights. The Commission had been concerned by reports of the arrest and detention of persons in various countries who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners. The Commission had also been concerned by reports of the use of special administrative measures to detain persons who were not recognized as political prisoners and who were not afforded the same legal guarantees as political prisoners.

