

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION

Students, staff, and the University of the South Pacific are pleased to announce the launch of the new online learning platform (Moodle) which will enhance the quality of our distance education programs. This platform will provide a more interactive and engaging learning experience for our students, allowing them to access course materials, participate in discussions, and receive feedback from their lecturers. The new platform is user-friendly and easy to navigate, ensuring that all students can benefit from its features. We are confident that this new platform will significantly improve the learning experience for our students and support their academic success.

The University of the South Pacific is committed to providing high-quality education to our students. The new online learning platform is a key component of our commitment to innovation and excellence in education. We are proud to have implemented this new platform and believe it will be a valuable tool for our students. We encourage all students to explore the new platform and take full advantage of its features. We are confident that this new platform will be a significant step forward in our journey towards providing the best possible education for our students.
