

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION

The University of the South Pacific is pleased to announce that the School of Distance Education has been established. This new school will provide a wide range of courses and programmes to meet the needs of students who are unable to attend traditional universities. The school will offer a variety of courses in the fields of business, education, health, and social sciences. The courses will be delivered through a combination of self-paced study and distance learning techniques. The school will also provide support services to help students succeed in their studies. The establishment of the School of Distance Education is a significant step towards providing quality education to all students in the Pacific region.

The University of the South Pacific is committed to providing a high quality education to all students. The School of Distance Education will ensure that all courses are delivered in a way that is both effective and efficient. The school will also provide a range of support services to help students succeed in their studies. The establishment of the School of Distance Education is a significant step towards providing quality education to all students in the Pacific region.
