INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORY OF THE CIVIL SERVICE

The International Conference on the History of the Civil Service was held in London, England, from 1987 to 1989. The conference was organized by the British Civil Service and the International Association of Civil Servants (IACS). The conference was a landmark event in the history of the civil service, as it brought together civil servants from all over the world to discuss their experiences and challenges.

The conference was held in three stages: the first stage was held in London in 1987, the second stage was held in London in 1988, and the third stage was held in London in 1989. The conference was a landmark event in the history of the civil service, as it brought together civil servants from all over the world to discuss their experiences and challenges.
